

Allan NovakCreator & Media Executive, All Screen Entertainment, Canada

Allan Novak is a creator and media executive with a passion for bringing innovative and entertaining ideas to life.

Over the past twenty five years he has been a key contributor to many of the top comedy, drama, children's, documentary, factual and reality TV series in Canada. He is an award-winning editor, director, writer and producer who has created seven original TV series, developed and sold big budget formats and collaborated closely with the likes of Codco, Kids in the Hall, Mike Myers and Ken Finkleman.

In 2011, after two years as VP Factual and Reality for Temple Street Productions, Allan is now combining his national and international TV experiences together with his long-time passion for trans-media in the new AllScreen Entertainment Inc., a modern entertainment company that will create and produce great shows across platforms and across borders.

Along with partner Barri Cohen, an award-winning show runner and producer, AllScreen will develop and create original and memorable factual and scripted entertainment.

All Screen Entertainment Inc.

AllScreen Entertainment is a new content company founded in May 2011 to create and produce innovative video and trans-media content for TV, web and mobile. The company intends to create great entertainment properties in Canada and across borders and platforms.

Founded by two veteran TV talents, award-winning creator/producer/director Allan Novak and award-winning producer/director Barri Cohen, the company is set up to leverage their substantial talents and track records and use forward-thinking, future-oriented approaches. Both Allan and Barri are well known and well respected in the Canadian and international TV worlds. Their coming together as a team is sure to get noticed by the industry and broadcasters.

AllScreen's targeted genres include comedy, drama, factual, lifestyle, reality, documentary and music.

