

Jonathan Glazier

Director of Entertainment Talent Television

Jonathan's career spans 25 years directing and producing some of the top entertainment shows in the UK. As editor of entertainment and international formats at the BBC he was Executive Producer of Weakest Link, amongst others. He also founded the BBC think tank Format Factory and has spoken and lectured throughout the world on creativity and format entertainment. He then moved to head up Fox World in the UK a global role sourcing and producing international programming. Most recently he returned to the UK after working in Australia and New Zealand as head of international production and development at Eyeworks New Zealand. In the UK he joins Talent Television taking the role of Director of Entertainment and a 10% holding in the AIM listed company Talent Group plc.

Jonathan Glazier is an Advisory Board Member of the Entertainment Master Class.

Talent Television

Talent Television is an independent television production company, based in and operating out of the UK, which produces a wide range of entertainment and factual television programmes and formats for both UK broadcasters and international distribution.

Its current portfolio includes the highly successful interactive TV event series "Test the Nation" for BBC One, Number One Fan for ITV and the top rated children's entertainment format Best of Friends for CBBC.

Contact

Talent Television · 72 – 75 Red Lion Street · London WC1R 4NA · UK
T: + 44 207421.7800 · F: + 44 207421.7811
Jonathan.glazier@talenttv.com · www.talenttv.com
