

Philip Morrow

Managing Director, Wild Rover Productions, UK

Phil Morrow is Managing Director of Wild Rover Productions - a specialist provider of global entertainment formats and prime time entertainment television shows. The company is based in Belfast and was established in 1999.

Phil has over twenty years experience in entertainment television, both as a broadcast executive and as a producer and format creator. Prior to setting up Wild Rover he was an executive at Channel Four, Mentorn, Thames TV and UTV. His production experience spans entertainment, comedy, drama and factual television. He currently Exec Produces all of Wild Rover's output.

Phil served as Northern Ireland's PACT representative for six years and currently sits on the board of Northern Ireland Screen.

Wild Rover Productions

Wild Rover Productions is a specialist provider of global entertainment formats and prime time entertainment television specializing in non-scripted entertainment, comedy and reality formats. The company was established in Belfast in 1999 and has created and produced a wide range of entertainment shows in the UK as well as in the USA, and Ireland. Current shows include: Take the Money and Run (ABC), Secret Fortune (BBC & CBS), Just for Laughs (BBC), Get Smarter in a Week (BBC), The David Meade Project (BBC)...

